Collection of Data

TownRock Energy is committed to respecting the personal data that you supply to us. We will only use personal information you send us for the purposes for which you provide it. If we wish to use it for any other purpose we will ask you first. We will only hold your information for as long as necessary for these purposes and will not pass it on to any other parties. All employees who may have access to your personal data are obliged to respect the confidentiality of your personal data.

Whenever personal data is obtained from you, you will have access to information as to how that data will be used. Upon request, we will provide you with a copy of the data we have collected about you, although we may make a charge for this and may require proof of your identity to enable us to do so.

We collect web statistics automatically about your visit to our site. This information is used to help us follow browsing preferences on our site so that we can regularly improve our website. These statistics do not contain personal data and cannot be traced back to an individual.

The use of our email system may be monitored and communications read in order to secure effective operation of the system and for other lawful purposes.

We will treat any personal information by which you can be identified (i.e. name, address, email) in accordance with the provisions of the Data Protection Act of 2018.

For matters relating to the collection of data and or privacy, please contact our Data Protection Officer, John Naismith, at john@townrockenergy.com.
